

Gaurav Dagaonkar is a Music Director / Singer from Mumbai. A graduate of the prestigious Indian Institute of Management, Ahmedabad, Gaurav has composed songs for the award winning soundtrack of Vikram Bhatt's "Lanka". His next release would be "Joker", starring Akshay Kumar and Sonakshi Sinha, directed by Shirish Kunder where Gaurav has composed a hot item song 'Kaafirana' that has been picturized on Chitrangada Singh. Besides music direction, Gaurav is a brilliant singer and live show performer and has performed at numerous college and corporate fests across India.

Gaurav started his career with his private album - "College Days", released by Universal Music in 2008. The title track and its music video, met with a great response from college students across the country, the video crossing a million hits on Youtube.

Gaurav's latest release has been the film 'Will You Marry Me' (March 2012), in which Gaurav has composed and sung the hit song 'Soniye' along with the renowned singer Rahat Fateh Ali Khan. Gaurav has also appeared in the music video of the song along with Rajeev Khandelwal, Shreyas Talpade and Mugdha Godse.

A highly entertaining performer himself, Gaurav has performed at several music concerts/events throughout the country. Gaurav has a high-energy stage act and performs popular Hindi/English numbers along with songs from his album. Key performances include ones at IIT Bombay (Mood Indigo), IIM Ahmedabad (Chaos), IIM Kohzicode, SVNIT (Surat), Vyas College (Jodhpur), Thapar University (Patiala), MS University, Baroda

(Paramarsh) etc. amongst others. He has also performed at several corporate events across the country. Gaurav has a very classy act and a highly charming stage presence that endears him to every audience he performs for. Given his management background and command over Hindi/English, Gaurav has also anchored shows for corporates along with performing, which makes him a complete package. His shows can be solo (on tracks), a full fledged concert with his band or even a highly sophisticated unplugged set featuring classic rock songs of the 70s along with retro Hindi and folk numbers, depending upon the event.
